

Revised Major Requirements	International Studies
Total # of units required for major, excluding any required Intensive(s)	10
Required Intensive units, if any	1
Total units required	11
Total # of specific courses required (e.g., 101 & 102; 218; one of 225, 226, or 227; 301-02; 362) . Please list below and indicate # of units for each.	2
INTL 106 - Perspectives in International Studies	1
INTL 305 - Senior Seminar	1
Distributional content area units required (e.g. 1 unit at the 200 level in each of the three subdivisions of the field). To the right, list units for any not already included above. Below, list the distributional statement.	6
Disciplinary Concentration I: Two 200-level units; One 300-level unit	3
Disciplinary Concentration II: Two 200-level units; One 300-level unit	3
Social Science Requirement: At least one 200-level course in three of the following four disciplines: political science, history, economics, geography. In most cases, this requirement will be met – in part or entirely – by “double counting” one or more courses in a student’s two disciplinary concentrations. (INTL 255 may count toward this specific requirement as a 200 level economics course.)
Disciplinary concentrations, and the specific 200-level and 300-level units that will count toward the major must be approved by the Program Director in consultation with the student's adviser and the IS Panel of Advisers (a subset of the IS Faculty)
ELECTIVES. To the right, indicate units not included above. Below, list any structured electives not included above (e.g., 2 electives at the 200 level and 2 elective seminars)	2
Two other approved INTL courses/experiences consistent with the themes, focuses (regional or other) of each student’s unique INTL major. These courses/experiences are to be listed in each student's major proposal.	2
INTENSIVE(S) required. Below, list any specific required intensive(s).	1
INTL 300 or INTL 301-302 - Senior Thesis	1
Other. Please explain below.
Each prospective INTL major must submit a “major proposal” - their plan for completing the INTL major. This proposal will include a declaration of their disciplinary concentrations, and the specific 200- and 300-level units within these disciplines that will count toward the major. This proposal must be approved by the INTL Panel of Advisers (a subset of the INTL faculty). Changes to a student’s major plan must be approved by the Program Director in consultation with the student’s adviser.
